Vicar's Report

Last Friday, in response to a call from Kathy Sullivan, twelve people showed up to pack bags of hygiene products for ISD 166. When I think of how hard it is for some churches to get volunteers, this makes me feel very proud of us! We want to make a difference!

This week I made up a preaching schedule—something we've never done at Spirit of the Wilderness before. All in all, there will be nine different voices bringing the word to us between now and the end of December. We also have conveners for the major groups at Spirit—worship, outreach, etc.

Besides being wonderfully organized (!) all of this is about a turn we are trying to take at SOTW—a turn which keeps our strong sense of lay involvement but also makes sure we're not 'flying by the seat of our pants.' All of this is part of growing up as a church, but also about getting ready for my sabbatical in a year's time.

We also received a freshly printed Directory—thanks to Karen Kobey. It looks great! But of course, it was instantly out of date! (See below.) We will start including names in our on line version of the directory.

And we had a wonderful International Day of Peace service, put together by Kathy Sullivan.

I list all these as emblematic of our involvement as a church.

I'm still hoping to hear from you about what makes us distinctive as a church. What do you tell people when you tell them about SOTW? Does our statement (that goes with our logo) still work for us? "Inviting Mystery, Embracing Compassion, Encountering Christ."—does this speak of who we are ?

Looking forward to hearing your thoughts on this !

Blessings, Mary Ellen
