Spirit of the Wilderness

Weekly News—October 22, 2009

Mark your calendar!

- November 1st: We change our service time to 10:30, and celebrate All Saints. Bring pictures of those who've gone before who you wish to remember. Brown bag lunch following.
- November 2nd: Women's Spirituality Group at WindCradle: Come and bring a friend!
- November 11th: Social evening at Greg and Coralyn's—pizza from the wood-fired oven.
- December 9th: Advent Retreat at WindCradle, after Potluck. 6:30-9:00 PM

Take this opportunity to remind friends about our later service time!! Invite people to All Saints to remember loved ones!!

SPECIAL NEWS

On November 1

We bring all our pledge cards to church and present our offerings to God.

Service Opportunities:

- Food Shelf: (Nov. 2nd)
- Soup-making for Empty Bowls: November 10??
- Empty Bowls: (Nov. 12)

Mentor Notes:

Spirit of the Wilderness will be collaborating with the Art Colony on a Stations of the Cross exhibit during Holy Week and the week before 2010. We are asking artists to choose one of the stations to portray: the show will be at the Art Colony and the whole community invited. We also hope to have an art historian give a lecture. Tell any artists you know about this great opportunity!

Pray!!

- For me as I lead a retreat this weekend in Fergus Falls, MN
- Election of a new bishop in our diocese, Oct. 31st.
- That we may know how best to reach out to our community.
- Healing for those in need: Lorraine, Doris, Alan, etc.
- Gratitude for each other and God's work here.
